

Winter Outdoor Activities Itinerary Pioneer Valley of Massachusetts

Day One

Depart Amsterdam at 1:30 p.m. and arrive at Bradley International Airport at 3:30 p.m.

Breeze through Bradley's quick and easy customs and immigration and choose from Alamo, Avis, Budget, Enterprise or Hertz car rentals, to travel with ease throughout New England. Once you pick up your rental car, you have a variety of hotels to choose from. For a complete list, go to www.valleyvisitor.com or try the Marriott Hotel in Springfield, only a short drive away from the airport.

Enjoy dinner at Café Lebanon, located near the Marriott Hotel in Springfield. Known for its delectable food and excellent service, Café Lebanon offers delicious Middle Eastern cuisine.

Bright Nights Display

Before heading back to the hotel, visit the Festival of Trees at Tower Square. For a small entrance fee, admire the uniquely themed and decorated Christmas trees. All proceeds benefit the Springfield Boys & Girls Club.

Explore Bright Nights at Forest Park. Bright Nights, a winter time favorite in Springfield, is New England's largest holiday lighting display. Sponsored by the Spirit of Springfield, a nonprofit organization that aims to create events that instill pride within the community, Bright Nights can be viewed by driving through the lighting display or catching a ride with a tour bus. Enjoy seasonal displays such as "Letters to Santa," or year-round favorites, such as "Jurassic World." No matter what you see, Bright Nights is an illuminating sight that you will not want to miss.

Day Two

Get your skiing gear ready! Drive an hour to Cranwell Resort Spa and Golf Club for a morning of cross country skiing and afternoon of relaxation at the spa. Enjoy a relaxing and healthy lunch at the spa café. Cranwell Resort, Spa and Golf Club is a premier all-season resort in the Berkshires. Its spa is one of the largest in the Northeast, and offers over 50 services. You will leave feeling relaxed and refreshed!

Skiers at Jiminy Peak

Travel 30 minutes to Williamstown and check into The Orchards Hotel, which offers fine dining and luxury accommodations. Perfect for an outdoor vacation, The Orchards offers a ski and stay package with Jiminy Peak that includes: overnight luxury accommodations, a full country breakfast for two and two lift tickets at Jiminy Peak.

Whether you spend the day cross country skiing at Jiminy Peak or strolling through Williamstown, you will be ready for a delicious meal. Enjoy a fusion of classic and contemporary cuisine at the Gala Restaurant & Bar at The Orchards Hotel, or try The Williams Inn, also located in Williamstown.

Day Three

Drive 15 miles to Jiminy Peak to take advantage your ski and stay package! Enjoy a day of alpine skiing or snowboarding. Rent skies or a snowboard for only $32 a day! With 44 trails, 18 of which are lighted for night, and five terrain parks, Jiminy Peak is sure to be a memorable skiing experience.

After a day of skiing, enjoy the après skiing scene at Christiansen’s Tavern, located at the base of the mountain. With live entertainment and great food you are guaranteed a good time! End the evening by relaxing back at the Orchards Hotel.

Day Four

After two days of skiing why not take a leisurely stroll through the woods? Jiminy Peak offers Tubbs Snowshoe Rentals, which are available for $25 a day. Enjoy one of the fastest growing winter sports—see what all the hype is about!

After a morning of snowshoeing, drive 35 minutes to Prime Outlets in Lee, MA. At Lee, you will find Tommy Hilfiger, COACH, BCBGMAXAZRIA, Calvin Klein, Polo Ralph Lauren and many more outlets. Enjoy a quick bite at the food court, conveniently located at the Lee Outlets.

Prime Outlets, Lee

After dinner, travel back to Springfield for a relaxing night at Naomi’s Inn, located in Springfield. Built in 1846, this historic inn combines quaint 18th-century character with modern 20th-century comforts.

Day Five

Photograph from Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame

Spend the day at the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame located nearby in Springfield. Featuring exhibits, memorabilia and interactive areas, guests can spend the day touring and playing at the Hall of Fame. Dine at Max’s Tavern or Pazzo Ristorante, which are both located at the Hall of Fame. Enjoy seasonal events and guest speakers.

Arrive at Bradley International Airport at 3:45 p.m. and depart for Amsterdam Schiphol Airport at 5:45 p.m.
